"You don't give much heed to the admonition 'Blessed is the peace-maker.'"

"No," answered the nervous citizen. "The version for these rapid times should be 'Blessed is the peace-maker.'"

A NIGHTMARE

Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmares or night hags has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too heavy eating.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia or bad stomach. When the weak stomach is strengthened and invigorated the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.

"I was a victim of sleeplessness and extreme nervousness induced by chronic indigestion and I felt heavy, tired and worn out continually," writes Miss Mary Smith, of 1613 So. Wabasha Street, Colorado Springs, Colo. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery was the only medicine which relieved me. Within a week after I began using it that heavy oppressed feeling after meals had left me, and I found that I was able to sleep better than for months previously. My appetite was gradually restored, general system was toned up, nervousness became a thing of the past and I have now been in splendid health for over nine months.

Sometimes a selfish dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It may be better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured others, and which you believe will cure you.

SERPENT EATING SNAKE.

A Venomous Reptile That Will Attack Man or Beast.

The serpent eating snake, or king of serpents (Ophiophagus elaps) found in Burma, is among the most interesting of our venomous snakes and the only really aggressive member of the ophiophagians, readily attacking any man or animal that happens its way. The female is especially irritable during the season of modification, and an adult snake attains a length of from twelve to fifteen feet, is superlatively swift and active and possesses a poison fang three inches in length and charged with a very powerful venom. It will be admitted that Ophiophagus elaps, Naia bungarus or serpentivore, as it is also called, is a foe that had better be avoided.

While being neither an arboreal nor a water snake, the Ophiophagus elaps climbs trees with facility and takes to water readily, swimming with great ease and skill. Its poison is as deadly in its effect as that of the lesser hooded snake (the Ophiophagus elaps also carries a hood), the cobra, but it is believed that the action of the venom is not quite so rapid.

The shortest period within which it proved fatal to a fowl was fourteen minutes, while a dog expired in two hours and eighteen minutes. Nicholson relates an account of an elephant which succumbed to a bite in three hours.—Amrita Bazar Patrika.

NEED OF A CHEMICAL ENGINE.

At the last regular meeting of the City Council a communication was received from the local Board of Trade recommending the purchase of a chemical engine as an addition to the city's fire-fighting apparatus. We believe the suggestion is a good one and well worth being considered by the Council. The Board of Trade in its communication says:

"At the regular meeting of this board held on the 13th inst. the request of Mr. Winter, Chief of the Fire Department, to your honorable body for a chemical engine was discussed and meets with our most cordial endorsement and we would recommend to you gentlemen that you have such an engine purchased at the first opportunity the funds at your disposal will permit. It does not appear to us necessary to urge upon you the necessity of such an addition to our fire-fighting apparatus, for we believe you are thoroughly acquainted with the situation; but we might add that in our opinion the obtaining of such an engine might aid in our obtaining a lower rate of insurance."

We understand that an engine such as is recommended by Chief Winter would cost about $600. The value of a chemical engine as a fire-fighting apparatus cannot be questioned, it being universally considered a necessity to every up-to-date fire department. We trust that the Council will consider the matter and that it may see its way clear to grant Mr. Winter's request.

Lon Cook is a thorough believer in keeping up with the times, and to that end has inaugurated many improvements on his property on Main street. He is said to be one of the best and most rapid stenographers in the State and it has been predicted of him by those who know of his work that by the time he is 21 years of age he will undoubtedly be the best in California.

Lompoc is very proud of Henry, and his hosts of friends here wish him all the success his earnest efforts deserve. His father, A. W. Dewing, is well known by all pioneers in this county, he having spent his boyhood at Woodside. He came there in 1866 and left for the south many years ago.

The Commercial National Bank of Ogden, through its attorney Archer Kincaid, has notified the attorneys of the T. G. Phelps estate that it would move for a new trial in the matter of granting a partial distribution of the estate. Practically Local Option.

The Supervisors of Santa Clara county have made a change in the county liquor license ordinance which practically gives local option. By its terms a saloon can not be established in any precinct of the county unless a majority of the voters of that precinct are willing. Those in existence are not to be bothered and the transfers of licenses are to be made by the Supervisors.

Fractured His Arm.

J. Albert, a gardener for Mrs. R. A. Sweeney Poesia, met with a painful accident Wednesday evening. He fell from a stairs leading to Mrs. Poesia's residence and fractured his right arm in three places above and below the elbow. He was taken to Dr. Maine's office for treatment. Owing to the peculiar position of the fracture the unfortunate man will have a crooked arm.

Few men are satisfied when they get what they deserve.

THEIR CRYSTAL WEDDING

Fifteenth Anniversary of Marriage a Most Happy Occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Behrens are Greeted by Many Friends at Their Handsome Home.

The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Behrens, on Jefferson street, was on Friday evening the scene of one of the most pleasant social events that has occurred in Redwood City for many a day.

It was the occasion of the fifteenth marriage anniversary of the host and hostess, and some three score invited guests were there to celebrate the event. The beautiful home never looked so pretty. The grounds were brilliantly lighted for the occasion, numerous incense-burners being artistically arranged along the walks and under the trees, presenting a most inviting appearance.

And it was a merry gathering that was there to join in this crystal wedding. The host and hostess received their guests with a cordiality that is ever theirs, and numerous were the congratulations they received and of wishes for many more years of happy wedded life.

And the presents! As was befitting a crystal wedding, these consisted of the most handsome pieces of cut glass; and to say that the gifts were numerous and costly but inadequately expresses it.

The evening was spent in a most enjoyable manner at games and billiards and the guests were favored with vocal selections by Mrs. Ensor, Mrs. Hanson and Miss Lewis.

Along about midnight a dainty supper was served.

At the banquet table Mr. Geo. C. Ross as master of ceremonies voiced the sentiment of those present by referring to the happy occasion as an event in which we were glad to participate, and he spoke of the influence which Mr. Behrens had exerted upon the business and church life of the community. Short speeches were also made by Rev. David M. Crabtree, Dr. J. L. Ross, Mr. J. H. Mansfield and Rev. C. C. Kirtland, all joining in expressions of congratulations and good will.

It was not until the "wee sma' hours" of the morning that the guests departed, bearing with them pleasant memories of the occasion that will remain for many a year.

AN AUTOMOBILE ORDINANCE.

Machines Must Have a Drip Pan When Stopping in This City.

The attention of owners of automobiles is called to section seventeen of the recent ordinance passed and adopted at the last meeting of the Board of Town Trustees, making it a misdemeanor to operate a machine without a drip pan to catch the oil from the auto. The machine when remaining for any length of time on the streets leaves a deposit of oil which destroys the asphaltum and ruins the streets. Following is the section referred to and also the section providing a penalty for the violation of the ordinance:

Section 17. No person shall operate, drive or use, upon any asphaltum street in the Town of Redwood City, any automobile, motor-car, motor-cycle, bicycle or other vehicle, unless said automobile, motor-car, motor-cycle, bicycle, or other vehicle shall be supplied with a drip pan or other suitable contrivance which will prevent the dripping or flowing of oil from said automobile, motor-car, motor-cycle, bicycle or other vehicle, upon the surface of said asphaltum street.

Section 18. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three hundred ($300) dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding three (3) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

CONGREGATIONAL FAIR.

A Social and Financial Success Was Scored in Its Management.

The fair given by the ladies of the Congregational church closed Thursday evening and was an unequalled success, it being estimated that $350 was cleared. The ladies are to be congratulated upon the splendid manner in which the entertainments of the different evenings and the management of the various booths were conducted.

The attendance was good and everybody seemed to be having a fine time. The entertainment Tuesday evening consisted of selections by the Girls' Glee Club of the Sequoia high school, a recitation by Miss Mildred Smith, and a selection by the Ladies' Quartet. There was also a one-act comedy farce, "Cupid in Shirt-Sleeves," which abounded in absurdly comical situations and well illustrated the old adage that all's well that ends well.

On Wednesday evening Mr. W. H. Wheeler, baritone, manager of the DeKoven club, Berkeley, gave some excellent vocal selections and also recited some comical selections that were favorably received. Miss Beulah Rohr of Oakland, a child elocutionist of rare merit, won the favor of the audience and was repeatedly encored. There was also an excellent vocal duet by Mrs. Wm. McGarvey and Mr. H. G. Watrous.

On Thursday evening there was a violin solo, "The Wedding of the Winds," by Maurice Goldsmith, accompanied by Otto Offermann; a vocal solo by Miss Lucille Otto, a recitation by Miss Bliss Rockwell and a vocal solo by Miss Ethel Lewis.

Honolulu Orchestra Monday.

Don't forget the great treat in store for the citizens of Redwood City next Monday night. The original Honolulu Orchestra and Glee Club will give a grand vocal and instrumental concert to be followed by a dance, at the Alhambra theatre. There will be fine vocal solos by a wonderful basso, a fine tenor and excellent baritone; there will be instrumental solos on the flute and saxophone; there will be duets, quartets and double quartets. You will hear the beautiful native music of Hawaii as it is seldom heard outside of the Islands. You will hear the sparkling, jolly music of the Hula-Hula and the old melodious chants of the native Hawaiians. Then you will have the gayest dance music by the full orchestra, which often sings in the midst of a dreamy waltz or jolly Sonza two-step. Yes indeed, it will be a rare treat. Take the children to hear it, for it may be years before such an opportunity will come again and the management has placed the price for children sitting with their parents at only 25c. The prices for adults are 75c for a special front row, 50c for the balance of the seats down stairs and 25c in the gallery. You can reserve them now at the Pioneer drug store.

ROOSEVELT PARK MONUMENT

Unveiling of Granite Stone in the Handsome Triangle.

Max Spoerl the Orator of the Occasion—Dancing in the Alhambra Theatre.

It was a jolly company that turned out Saturday night to witness the unveiling of the granite slab at Roosevelt Park. The handsome triangle at the junction of Main and Mound streets was literally jammed in by people on all sides. All Redwood seemed to be there. There was music and there were speeches, and in conclusion there was a dance at the Alhambra at which the merry throng chased the hours away until after midnight.

The orator of the occasion, Max Spoerl, and the local band rode in Spoerl's tally-ho through the streets of the city to the scene of the exercises. Many other prominent citizens also rode in carriages, and the street parade was conducted with all the style and dignity befitting a great and memorable occasion.

The ubiquitous small boy was there, and although the hour was after eight he enjoyed the freedom of the streets, no one having the heart to enforce the rigid laws of the municipality. On small boy, however, came to grief, for in his endeavor to see it all he was suddenly stricken with severe pains in the upper region of the spinal column. When he was taken to the emergency hospital, thirty-nine kinks were removed from his neck and they are still unwinding. No other casualties are reported.

Shortly after eight o'clock the procession arrived at the square and after a patriotic and stirring selection by the band the orator arose and in a few eloquent words expressed the purpose of the gathering.

"For the second time," said Mr. Spoerl, "we are gathered to perform a duty that is pleasant to us all. The first time we met here, this spot which is now grown with beautiful flowers and shrubbery was a bare piece of ground covered with weeds and debris. This splendid transformation is due to the good work of our Park Commissioners, who have indeed given us a flower garden, a beauty spot that is attractive to every eye."

After a few further remarks by Mr. Spoerl, the stone was placed in position. The orator of the evening then called for three cheers for the President and they were given with a will.

Joseph J. Bullock, the eloquent District Attorney, made a brief response, but confessed his inability to add anything to the well-chosen remarks of the evening. The band then struck up a martial air, and the vast throng sojourning to the Alhambra Theatre, where dancing until a late hour closed the festivities of the evening.

The stone which was unveiled was presented by John Dhue, who also chiseled the inscription upon it. It has the name of the park, the date of the dedication and the name of Mr. Spoerl and the six commissioners as follows: Carl Plump, Joe Dickey, W. C. Haves, Gus Stalter, John Dhue and Charles Cullen.

Deer Season Shortened.

The deer shooting season has been shortened by the board of supervisors of Santa Clara county and will end October 1st, instead of October 15th as in former years.—Falo Alto Times.

Events of the Week as Recorded by Corps of Special Correspondents.

Huckleberries Are in Abundance at Woodside—Many Improvements at Belmont.

BELMONT, September 29—Mr. and Mrs. A. Hynding are visiting at the home of D. Barre.

The Misses Maud and Evelyn Stevenson of San Francisco are spending a week with their friend Miss Elizabeth Rowell.

Mr. and Mrs. George Russell are cooly settled in their pretty new home. Work is nearly finished on the new house of Mrs. J. Turner, and it is a fine improvement for the corner of Ralston avenue and Schmitt street.

Another new house to be built on the corner near Mr. Mason's new home.

Fred Eichenberg, one of the genial clerk of the Emmett's, is away on a vacation.

Miss Alma Mason is visiting in San Francisco.

Mrs. DeRoche has been quite ill with pneumonia, but is now improving. Her daughter Mrs. Malone is home with her.

WOODSIDE CHIPS.

WOODSIDE, September 29—George Williams and family have moved into one of Dr. Ross's cottages for the winter.

The families of A. Comte and R. W. Jackson have returned to the city for the winter. Another month will see all the wealthy class comfortably housed in the city for the wet season.

Frank Pohl's orchestra will give a social dance to-morrow evening Saturday. Pohl's orchestra is pronounced fine by experts and the dance will be a success beyond a doubt.

Jose Silva has moved from the old adobe to the McCarthy place on Albion avenue.

Samuel Hall, the well-known house-mover, has been engaged for the last week moving some barns and outhouses on the ranch of J. A. Hooper.

The huckleberries are in abundance this year and everybody is putting in a good supply for the winter.

The first rain of the season fell Wednesday. Not enough to settle the dust, but the sky is still cloudy and indications are for more.

A. Comte has been renominated by the Democrats of San Francisco for Supervisor and is endorsed by the Republicans. Mr. Comte has held the office for the past eight years and his election is a certainty. As a member of the Board of Supervisors Mr. Comte has worked for the interests of the people of the city, always standing solid for justice and right.

The road leading from Neumann's to the summit will be changed very shortly.

The present road runs too close to the residence of J. A. Folger now in course of construction. The only remedy for Mr. Folger was to purchase the Dearborn place, through which the new road will run, until it reaches the present one some distance up the mountain.

Albert T. Shine, one of the bright students of St. Mary's College, Oakland, has been appointed by the student body president of the Athletic Association of that institution. He is a football player of great ability.

MILLBRAE NEWS.

MILLBRAE, September 29—John Murphy, a laborer employed by John MacLean in the construction of the Moore home near Woodside, had a most thrilling experience Wednesday. Murphy lost Redwood early that morning and dropped off at San Mateo to see some friends. About 10 o'clock he wandered over to the depot as the Del Monte limited was about to depart. Being on the east side of the track the vestibules of the cars were closed and he lunged into the coach. Not being observed by any of the train men, and as the train made no further stops until it reached San Francisco, the situation was indeed desperate. At Millbrae is a movable platform for handling milk shipments and which clears the track by a few inches. Murphy's coat and undergarments caught this and they were pulled off his back. His back was also badly chafed by rubbing against the platform. Just beyond a few feet he released his hold and dropped off, rolling down the bank into a bed of cinders. He lay there for about an hour, when being observed he was picked up by railroad employes and brought to the station. Agent Murphy summoned Dr. Siebert, who on examining the injured man found several cuts and bruises but nothing of a serious nature.

WITHOUT WARNING.

A Pleasure Ride on the Bay, With Death as Its Sad Ending.

Death, grim and sudden, lurked in the waters of Redwood Creek Tuesday evening for 10-year-old Wm. McCauley of San Francisco.

At the morgue lie the remains of the unfortunate victim. A coroner's jury has been summoned and on Tuesday next an inquest will be held to determine the cause of the death.

The lad met his death in the most unusual manner. With two companions, John McAdam and Hans Peterson, he came down from San Francisco in a pleasure cruise. They entered Redwood Creek with the intention of coming to town, but dark coming on they prepared to find an anchorage near what is known as "deep water," out of the way of the larger vessels that were discharging bark at the wharf.

Upon entering a branch of the creek near the deep-water landing the mast of the yacht came in contact with the overhead wires that carry the electric current to the Saltworks. Young McCauley grappled with the wires to clear the mast.

In an instant there was a blinding flash, the unfortunate boy uttered a shriek, and before his companions knew what had happened he toppled over and fell into the water.

Captain Christensen of the schooner Columbus, attracted by the cries of the terror-stricken boys, came to their assistance in a small boat, and attaching a line to the Arrow he towed it away from the menacing wire.

The coroner was immediately notified and after two hours' work succeeded in recovering the body, which lay in eight feet of water.

The wire with which the unfortunate victim came in contact carried a voltage of 6,000, a large portion of which went through his body; but whether death was caused by this agency or by subsequent drowning will be for the coroner's jury to determine.

KEPT A HAPPY SECRET.

Bert Behrens and Miss Cora Finley Were Married Six Months Ago.

This is the story of a real romance, and no one ever guessed it.

There were rumors and rumors last week, but no one was the wiser. Then, of a sudden, the happy romance was unfolded and on Tuesday the young benedict pleaded guilty.

It was on the 25th of March that Bert Behrens, the popular assistant at the First National bank, and Miss Cora Finley, the charming young lady in charge of the local telegraph office, were joined in matrimony at Martinez. During all this time the young couple kept their marriage a secret and their success in that particular has excited the admiration of their relatives and most intimate friends.

The young couple are already keeping house in Dr. Ross' bungalow at Woodside and are receiving the congratulations of their many friends, who wish them God-speed on life's journey.

"CURIOUS WAGERS."

Frank Bet Won and Lost by the Conservative Briton.

In the year 1787 a farmer laid a wager that he would eat two dozen penny mutton pies and drink a gallon of ale in half an hour, a feat which he easily performed well within the specified limit. In about half an hour afterward he devoured a threepenny loaf and a pound of cheese and then attacked a leg of pork. A few years later, when the price of regent was enflaming Brighton with his vagaries, the notorious Sir John Lade made his celebrated wager that he would carry Lord Cholmondeley on his back twice around the Steine. As Sir John was short and his opponent tall, much curiosity was aroused, and many spectators, including ladies, came out to see, but were all balked of the spectacle by the nobleman declining to bear the nobelman except in the minimum of clothing, declaring that there was nothing in the conditions calling upon him to carry extra weight. Of quite another kind, says the Queen, was the wagering by a gentleman that he would stand all day upon London bridge with a tray-ful of new sovereigns, but he was unable to sell them at a penny a piece, and like Sir John Lade, he won his wager.
Fancy dress balls are still a favorite amusement with people, and many quaint and curious designs are to be seen at such assemblies, but here again there is nothing new, for, to quote but one instance, in 1806 a curious wager was laid between two gentlemen as to who should assume the most singular character. The winner paraded with his coat and waistcoat decorated with bank notes of different values, a row of five guinea notes and a netted piece of gold adorned his hat, while on his hat appeared a piece of paper with the words "John Bull." The loser wore certainly appear to have been more original still, for he appeared dressed like a woman on one side, one half of his face being painted and the other half blackened to resemble that of a negro. On one leg he wore a silk stocking and a slipper and on the other half a pair of linen breeches, a boot and spur, while he was also adorned with half a long tailed linen coat—London Standard.

THE RACCOON.

In the spring he starves.
He hibernates in winter.
During the summer and fall he feasts.
His coat is much sought for various purposes.
In captivity he is most engaging and appealing.
The courageous raccoon is game only in the autumn.
He can always whip a dog of his own size and weight.
Though called carnivorous, he has a weakness for peanuts.
Through the size of a very large cat,
he is allied to the bear.
In eating corn he bends it down, tearing open the husks as does the hog.
Their treacherous tendency may be observed in the zoo's famous house locust.
He comes from the woods to rob the cornfield, destroying much more than he eats.—Philadelphia Record.

Painfully Proud.
An English paper tells the following pathetic story of a governess who had seen better days, but who became altogether reduced in circumstances—nay, she kept hunger with difficulty from her door. Some benevolent person, hearing of her sad plight and knowing her pride, forwarded her half a sovereign, withholding any name.
After the death of the poor lady, not so very long afterward, when her desk was searched by a friend, there was found a neat little white paper packet containing the half sovereign untouched.
Across the paper was written in a tremulous hand: "Ten shillings sent anonymously. Most indecent."

Breach of Discipline.
In February, 1748, Lord Robert Bertie, third son of Robert, first duke of Lancaster, afterward general in the army and colonel of the Second regiment of foot guards, received a reprimand, such reprimand being conveyed to him by the Duke of Cumberland's aid-de-camp. His military offense was that he had blown his nose, as he relieved guard, beneath his grace's window in St. James palace; this, and this only, was all he had done.—Chambers' Journal.

No Fire Within.
Times have changed. Our fathers for some strange reason preferred a cold meeting house to one which was warmed by artificial heat. When a stove was put into the Old South church, Boston, in 1788, says J. H.
Crandon, a newspaper of contemporary date contained this significant lament:
"Extinct the sacred fire of love,
Our zeal grown cold and dead,
In the house of God we fixed a stove
To warm us in their stead."

Folly of Longevity.
The centenarian is a man who has mistaken quantity for quality. The centenarian's life is not always life at all. It is sometimes no more than a bad habit. They live longest who live least.—London Tatler.

Guessed It the First Time.
"Pa," said little Willie, who had been reading a treatise on phrenology, "what is a bump of destructiveness?"
"Why—er—a railroad collision, I suppose."—Philadelphia Ledger.

From the Courtroom.
Judge—Raise your hand to take the oath. (The witness puts up the left one). Judge—Not that one. Witness—
Which one?—Judge's Whiffer.

Hard to Handle.
Citizen—What'll you charge me, Uncle Rastus, to cart away that pile of stones? Uncle Rastus—Bout two dollars, sah. Citizen—Isn't that high?
Uncle Rastus—Yes, sah, jes' for cartin' away de stone, but I gottin' here
a man to help harness de mule.—Pittsburg Press.

An Economical Housewife.
"Why do you so often invite that old gossip, Mrs. Brown?"
"Oh, she always knows so many interesting things to tell that every one forgets to eat, and almost all the cake is left."—Flagstaff Blatter.

A Boy's Wild Ride For Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life 18 miles to get
Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. W. H. Brown of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him.
He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, coughs, colds and grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Ryan's drug store.

France is thinking of moving New Year's Day to March. It figures that the roads will be better for the water wagon then.

Fearful Odds Against Him.
Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier
by name of J. J. Haveis, Versailles, O.
For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicines gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I am on the road to complete recovery." Post on earth for liver and kidney troubles and all forms of stomach and bowel complaints.
Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by P. A.
Ryan, druggist.

The Russian envoys convey the impression that the Russians and Japanese are friends who are only trying to leave their calling cards at each other's capitals.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve
Has world-wide fame for marvelous cures.
It surpasses any other salve, lotion, ointment or balm for cuts, corns, burns, boils, sores, felons, ulcers, tetter, salt rheum,
fever sores, chapped hands, skin eruptions;
infallible for piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c at P. A. Ryan's drug store.

Sorrow may be a curse in sympathy.

What is Life?
In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law.
Abuse that law even slightly, pain results.
Irregular living means derangement of the organ, resulting in constipation, headache or liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly readjust this. They're gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at P. A. Ryan's drug store.
